

QUEENSBOROUGH STUDENT VETERANS RECIPIENTS OF THE FRIENDS OF VETERANS NEW YORK AWARD.

Michael Yeh served in the Marine Corps as a Sergeant for 4 years as a Tactical Data Networking Specialist. He majored in Computer Engineering Technology where he finished with a 3.73 GPA. He is currently pursuing his Bachelor's degree in Computer Engineering Technology at New York City College of Technology. He is achieving his educational goals to ensure his continued success personally and professionally.

Justin Montgomery served 4 years in the United States Air Force. Justin attended Queensborough Community College and completed an Associate of Arts degree in Liberal Arts with a 3.42 GPA. Justin transferred to Hunter College and plans to pursue a degree in the science field. In addition to completing his degree, Justin was a veteran mentor for two semesters and is a member of Phi Theta Kappa (PTK) honor society.

Reginald Lesane is a United States Air Force veteran. He identifies himself as a dad, husband and student. Reginald graduated Queensborough Community College with an Associate of Applied Science Degree in Digital Art and Design in 2014, and an Associate of Arts and Sciences degree with a concentration in Psychology in 2017. Reginald is currently engaged in Cosmic Ray Physics Research at Queensborough Community College and attending St John's University to pursue a degree in Psychology.

Justin Davis was in the United States Navy from 2012-2016 and participated in 2 deployments; he currently is serving in the Navy Reserve. Justin attended Queensborough Community College and received an Associate's Degree in Criminal Justice with a 3.4 GPA. Justin continued his education at John Jay College of Criminal Justice and achieved a Bachelor of Science degree in Criminal Justice in August 2017. Currently, Justin is a New York Police Department rookie and plans on pursuing a Master's degree in Public Administration.

